

Erasmus minutes 4.05.2021

Attendees

Germany: Annette Groß (Heinrich-Böll-Schule),
Thomas Vossmann, Cathrin Bernroth (Janusz-Korczak-Schule)
Romania: Ramona Vesa
UK: Janet Simpson

Situation of schools in the countries

- U.K.: Schools are open, pupils are all in; no activities outside school
- Germany: Schools are closed, decision depends on regional incidence figures and can change every day
- Romania: C.S.E.I. Cristal is open, pupils are in except those with special medical indication; no inclusive activities with other schools or with the support of volunteers possible

Options of continuing the project

(Information of the German National Agency)

- Origin objectives are not expected to fulfil
- Picking small aspects and work on it
- Exchange on home schooling concepts related to relationship work; adapting of aspects possible?
- Document as continuous as possible, even if minor work (BLOG!)
- Save no money except travel budget and individual support
- Travel budget and individual support for mobilities which didn't occur must be paid back
- Continuing is even possible with few schools (2 from 2 countries)

How to cancel a project

(Information of the German National Agency)

- Claim costs
 - explain circumstances (informal)
 - auditing (submit receipts)
 - report
- Any money that was not spent must be paid back
- Travel budget and individual support for mobilities which didn't occur must be paid back
 - We are not left with the costs, but we don't have any profit.
- If the coordination institution breaks off, the project is over

All attendees agreed to continue with the project.

Continuing work

Idea: organizing an extended video meeting with different workshops among the headline: “How to make relationships work in pandemic times” - What kind of methods did we find? (working title, can be changed)

- Inviting interested staff of the schools (maybe Erasmus working group)
- Collecting ideas for a practical part (activities, sharing software, ...) and a theoretical part (conceptual aspects)

Homework

All attendees collect ideas for the different parts.
