Intention / Main contents

Any changes to the application?

Tuesday, 23.11.2021

1. Extended school tour

The participants were guided through the school. Main aspects of the school programme were explained by showing room-structures, individual education plans, teaching and structuring media etc.

2. Presentations of participating schools

All schools have presented their work on the project since the last meeting. (Presentations are to be found on the blog.):

- a) CSEI Cristal
Collection of many project activities concerning different aspects of relationships
- b) Janusz-Korczak-Schule
Presentation of the social learning programme "Fit for life" which strengthens skills needed for running successful relationships
- c) Heinrich-Böll-Schule
"Relationships in motion" – work on strengthening pupil/teacher-relationships through motion activities
- d) 136 PS "Luben Karavelov"
Work on relationships during online learning / learning in distance; difficulties and opportunities for teacher/pupil-relationships
- e) The Dales School
Presentation of school programme-aspects which touches work on teacher-pupil-relationships

3. "Being creative all together"

- Visit of Max-Ernst-Museum, Brühl
- Workshop in the "fantasy laboratory" of the museum; Common work on a Collage

Wednesday, 24.11.2021

1. Presentations of participating schools

All schools have presented their current work on parent/teacher-relationships to offer the other participants ideas for the new aspect they will work on until the next meeting. (Presentation are to be found on the blog.)

2. Workshop presented by CSEI Cristal

The school presented the idea of creating little gifts or friendly letters for parents to say “thank you”, to encourage parents in difficult situations or send good wishes for special days. Participants developed ideas for presents by themselves and presented them to the group.

3. Paper plane activity

Participants shot photos needed for the project film “A paper plane’s journey round Europe”

4. Introduction of new coordinators

Three schools sent new coordinators. Therefore it was necessary to give them an extended introduction into project’s structures and objectives and the work on the blog.

5. Pupils activity “Me, you, all together, yeah!”

Two classes of Heinrich-Böll-Schule performed a Body Percussion activity which was practiced during a teaching project concerning social learning. Participants joined the activity. Pupils and adults did the Body percussion “all together”.

Thursday, 25.11.2021

1. Team discussion to find a new working aspect concerning parent/teacher-relationships

3. Discussion about ongoing work

Because of the pandemic situation it became necessary to discuss the changing of objectives and structure of the project.

- a) Next mobility: 2/05/2022 to 6/05/2022
Sofia / Bulgaria
- b) Main content: School community (Either community in school or The cooperation of school with the local and regional community. Each school decides itself on the focus.)
- c) There will be Zoom-meetings in between to keep the contact
- d) If possible there will be another meeting either online or hybrid, organised by The Dales School, England

4. Cooperative Games, introduced by Janusz-Korczak-Schule

Participants played some cooperative games. The material was acquired by Janusz-Korczak-Schule during the project to support the strengthening of pupil/pupil-relationships in their school.

5. Evaluation of the meeting

Results / Agreements about ongoing work

Any changes to the application?

Work until next meeting in May:

1. Work in schools on parent/teacher-Relationships as decided during the meeting (see Thursday: Presenting the new objectives)
2. Preparing a presentation about current or past work on school community
3. All together Song
It is not possible to create the film with the original Beatles Song (very expensive and complicated to get music rights). Therefore we will use some licence free music without any text and put under titles under the activity photos of our pupils.

All photos must be sent to Bulgaria as soon as possible!

Janusz-Korczak-Schule will take photos of pupils singing in the choir.

4. Paper plane activity

All schools send photos of their challenges AND of the realisation of their given challenge to England. England will put the film together.

5. Blog

All schools will publish ongoing work on the Blog

Extern experts

(Intention / contents / profit)

The group enjoyed a guided tour through Max-Ernst-Museum and an instructed workshop in the fantasy laboratory.

Cultural and regional experiences

Tuesday “Being creative all together”

Museum and Workshop

Wednesday Evening

Participants met to see some historical highlights of the city. They were led by a colleague of Heinrich-Böll-Schule, who gave them an individual and affectionate guidance.

Thursday Evening “Being sportive all together”

Participants met for a Curling match.

All partners enjoyed the activities and took the opportunity to get into personal contact beyond the common professional activities.

Other comments

After a long time of separation because of the pandemic situation all participants were happy to meet again. We all felt the spirit of Erasmus and the absolute need of meetings like this. Thank you for coming to Germany and for making it possible to experience friendship and international community again.
